SUBJECT: Vacation Petition V-05010 Holladay Company's Addition to Highland (Brentwood)

Vacation of Church Street and Windom Street between Allison Street and Wallace Road in Brentwood, totaling 15,193 square feet or 0.348 acres, as shown on a subdivision plat entitled Holladay Company's Addition to Highland (Brentwood) MD, recorded in Plat Book "A," Plat Number 9, March 1904, among the Land Records of Prince George's County, Maryland, Election District No. 17.

OVERVIEW

The petitioners, The First Baptist Church of North Brentwood MD, Inc., James E. Spriggs, Jr., Barbara A. Spriggs, Lardner B. Gray, and Maxine J. Gray are the owners of the property abutting Church Street and Windom Street. Petitioners request the vacation of Church Street and Windom Street established by a subdivision plat in 1904. The subject property is located within a municipality, the Town of North Brentwood. The adjacent property on the northwest side of Church Street is improved with a church and parking facilities and the southeast side of Church Street is improved with single-family residences that have access from Banner Street. The subject street has been improved and used by the public but with the removal of said street, the lots and parcels abutting the street will continue to have access from other improved streets. Section 23-161 of the Road Ordinance of Prince George's County states that the road closure provisions shall not apply to any road within the boundaries of a municipality that are not under the county's jurisdiction. The Department of Public Works and Transportation indicates that the roads are not county-maintained and are within the jurisdiction of the Town of North Brentwood. By letter dated May 11, 2005, Mayor Beverly of the Town of North Brentwood indicates that the Council of the Town of North Brentwood voted to support the vacation petition.

It is the church's intention to record a new subdivision plat pursuant to Section 24-108(a)(3) to consolidate Parcel A, Lots 15-24 and the total vacated street area into one parcel for use as the church site with associated parking facilities.
