Built in 1914, Forest Grove Methodist Episcopal Church South, today known as Chapel 2, is an example of a modest rural chapel in the vernacular Gothic Revival style. In the church graveyard are stones dating from 1874 to 1938. The present church, erected in 1914 on the site of two earlier church buildings, served the small, now-vanished community of Centreville. In 1942, the U.S. government took over Centreville and nearby farmland for construction of a military airfield. Since that time, the church has offered interdenominational services for Andrews Air Force Base (now Joint Base Andrews) personnel.
