

79-002 Montpelier of Moore's Plains

1714 Crain Highway

Upper Marlboro vicinity

Built in the mid-nineteenth century and remodeled in the 1940s, Montpelier of Moore's Plains is a two-story, hip-roof frame plantation house. The main block was built for Stephen Belt on the tract known as Moore's Plains. In the 1940s, Dr. A. Keene Bowie added the brick veneer, modillion cornice, Ionic-columned portico, and kitchen wing.
