

79-019-02 Jarboe-Bowie House

14504 Elm Street

Upper Marlboro

Built circa 1852, the Jarboe-Bowie House is a two-story, side-gabled frame dwelling with small second-story windows, wood-shingle roof, and interior gable-end chimneys. It was built by local carpenter Reuben Bunnell, and was the home of William A. Jarboe, Clerk of the County Court and Register of Wills. The house was later owned by the Bowie family from 1882–1961. The house is an important component of one of the few surviving nineteenth-century streetscapes in Upper Marlboro.
