

79-019-21 John H. Traband House (Old Mill Place) (NR)

14204 Old Marlboro Pike

Upper Marlboro

Built from 1894–1897, the Traband House is a two-and-one-half-story, cross-gabled frame house with decorative fishscale shingles, scroll brackets on the projecting bays and elegant Queen Anne style detail. It was designed by architect Arthur Nicholson of Laurel and built for John H. Traband, Jr., adjoining his family's grist mill. The Traband House is Upper Marlboro's best example of late Victorian domestic architecture. The property was listed in the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.
