4106 Old Crain Highway

Upper Marlboro vicinity

Built in 1896 and later, the Bowling-Buck House was a multi-part, two-story frame dwelling with a three-story corner tower. The house was situated on a knoll with two historic outbuildings. The main section of the house was built for members of the Bowling family of nearby Bowling Heights; it was significantly enlarged a decade later when it became the home of the Bruce Buck family. This handsome house was destroyed by fire in January 2006; the outbuildings survive.
