

80-050 Addison Family Cemetery

National Avenue

Oxon Hill

Dating from the 18th and 19th century, the Addison Family Cemetery is sited approximately 28 feet above the surrounding grade and is enclosed by a chain link fence; archeological investigations in 1985 identified 15 burials and indicated that 15 to 25 additional burials may be present. It was once part of the Oxon Hill Manor plantation established by Thomas Addison in the early 18th century. The plantation was occupied by members of the Addison family until 1812, when the property was purchased by Zachariah Berry; members of the Berry family and their tenants occupied the mansion until it burned in 1895.
