Upper Marlboro vicinity

Weston is a two-and-one-half-story, side-gabled brick plantation house that was built in the early nineteenth century and attached to an earlier wing. The principal facade is laid in Flemish bond, and the interior exhibits detail in both the Federal and Greek Revival styles. The main block was built for Thomas Clagett VI, and soon afterward enlarged, probably incorporating part of an earlier Clagett dwelling. Weston has been the Clagett family seat for generations. It is an excellent example of a multiperiod plantation house. The grounds include several farm outbuildings, as well as the Clagett family cemetery.
