

85A-013 Gwynn Park

8118 Grayden Lane

T. B. (Brandywine)

Built in 1857 for William H. Gwynn, to replace the house destroyed by fire earlier that year, Gwynn Park is a two-story, side-gabled brick house with Georgian plan and a decorative cornice composed of courses of molded corbelled bricks. The interior exhibits Greek Revival trim and there is a one-story kitchen wing at one end. A small frame meat house, slightly older than the dwelling, stands on the grounds.
