

This is a detailed land use map of the Greenbelt area in Prince George's County, Maryland. The map uses various colors to denote different land use zones: yellow for general residential areas, purple for higher-density or commercial zones, green for parks and open spaces, and blue for water bodies. Major roads, including Interstate 495 (Capital Beltway) and several state roads, are clearly marked. The map also shows numerous smaller streets, parks, and other local landmarks. The overall layout shows a mix of urban development and open space, with the Greenbelt area itself being a central focus.
